5th International Self-Care Theory Conference Self-Care: A Challenge for Nursing and Society 7 - 9 August 1997 Catholic University of Leuven, Belgium

This international conference is designed for practitioners, scientists, scholars, and educators interested in Orem's conceptualization of nursing. It will provide opportunities to explore a range of research, practice and educational interpretations from the Self-Care Deficit Nursing Theory (S-CDNT) perspective and the progress being made through international collaboration. The S-CDNT provides the central focus for the conference. All presentations and posters explore an aspect of the theory or its use in practice, education or research.

Presenters and Reviewers represent 14 countries.

Sponsored By:
